Here's An Invitation to Attend Our Brand New Seminar For FREE...

“Five Things You Must Do To Have Your Best Year Yet!”

Dear Colleague,

Hello! Rich and Dave Madow here!

We are very excited to be coming to Magooby's located at 9603 Deereco Rd, Timonium, MD on Tuesday evening, May 10, 2011 to present our brand new seminar entitled “Five Things You Must Do To Have Your Best Year Yet!” This will be a very intimate group, and you and your team are cordially invited to come as our guests to preview this information packed seminar. Happy Hour and light fare is included and there is absolutely no question it will be a very fun and entertaining evening!

Here are just a few of the things you will learn at “Five Things You Must Do To Have Your Best Year Yet:”

- How to attract and schedule more highly qualified new patients!
- How to achieve more treatment plan acceptance than ever before!
- How to utilize cutting edge FREE marketing methods including Social Media and web optimization!
- How to significantly lower your overhead!
- How to avoid having the “Four Deadliest Words In Dentistry” being said about you!
- And MUCH, MUCH MORE!

As you may know we have been teaching success to dentists and team members for well over twenty years now. Our Las Vegas Seminar (often referred to as The Best Dental Seminar EVER) attracts thousands of dentists and team members every single year!

So why in the heck are we presenting this intimate seminar in your area and inviting a limited number of doctors and team members to attend for free? Why are we including drinks and light fare as well?

It's very simple. We have fantastic new material that we are sure will help you become more successful and we want to present it to a small group, have some fun with it, and possibly get your opinion! We are trying this in a few select areas for free. Once we do that, we will get feedback and eventually roll it out to larger dental audiences on a national level.

Are you ready? Here are the details...
